Make Plans to Flood Athletic Field at School

Lions to Sponsor Skating Under Lights at High School

Plans for flooding the athletic field at Antioch Township High school for skating during the winter were discussed at a meeting of the Antioch Lions club Monday evening in the Roundup.

Dr. G. W. Jensen, Dr. Frank Keefe, Roman B. Vos, F. J. ("Bud") Arnold and James McMillen were appointed as the committee.

The floodlights recently purchased for the field will be used to illuminate it for skating during the evening.

The club will sponsor the broadcasting of Christmas carols over a sound system during the holiday season. William Banedtt will be in charge.

Christmas Contest

Ben R. Burke heads the committee in charge of the contest the club will sponsor for the best exterior home Christmas decorations.

Prizes of $15, $10 and $5 will be awarded.

This contest was formerly sponsored annually by the club, but was discontinued during the war years.

"Ladies' Night" Dec. 10

Dancing and entertainment will be features of the annual "Ladies' Night" meeting to be held Monday evening, Dec. 10, at Pasadena Gardens.

A contribution of $25 to the Lake County Tuberculosis association was voted.

The club has eight new members. Forty-eight were present at the meeting.

A brief discussion of civic affairs, including a night policeman for the village and the possibility of having new streets put through, was held during the business period.

Plans for Winter Months to Be Made Tuesday by Council

Plans for improving the village sewage disposal plant, and plans for special problems brought by the winter months, such as snow removal from the streets, will be discussed at a meeting of the village council Tuesday evening.

A survey of the present sewage disposal plant, to make sure that sufficient space will be available for the improvement being planned, was made a few days ago.

William Thiemann, street superintendent, has nearly completed the cleaning of leaves and trash from the streets, so that early snowfalls will find them clear for efficient use of the snow plow purchased by the village a year ago.

Some further inquiries with regard to the position of night policeman have been received. President George B. Bartlett states, adding, "We are in hopes that with so many of our young men coming home from the service, we shall receive additional applications for this position."

Interest in Army Recruiting Program Is Increasing Here

One new enlistment and a number of inquiries as to the re-enlistment of former service men in the regular army and the reserve corps indicate a growing interest in the recruiting campaign which is now under way.

Local recruiting headquarters are located in the Antioch post office each Monday from 8 to 4 p. m., with S/Sgt. Charles Spear in charge.

Men who enlist in the regular army within 20 days after their discharge retain their rank and also receive a 90-day furlough, Sgt. Spear points out.

Eight re-enlistments and four new enlistments were received in Lake county during the week ending Nov. 23, the county headquarters located in the New Post Office building, Waukegan, announces. Robert I. Onstad of Hickory Corners, Antioch, Route 2, was one of the new enlistees.

Wray, Grayslake, are delegates from the Lake County Farm bureau to the thirty-first annual meeting of the Illinois Agricultural association this week in the Sherman hotel, Chicago. Farm Advisor Ray Nicholas attended a conference of farm advisers Monday morning.

Antioch Phones Ring Again, With Close of Six-Day Ill. Strike

Antioch's telephones broke their six-day silence Saturday evening at 6:10, when 30 local operators returned to work upon termination of the Illinois Telephone union's state wide strike. The Illinois Bell Telephone company and the union this week began negotiations for a new contract.

The strike was rescinded when it was agreed that in addition to increasing the wages of employees $4.00 per week retroactive to May 9 (to which the company had already given its consent), negotiations would be opened "as soon as the union desired" for the new wage scales, and that another wage increase of $2.00 per week would go into effect "not later than Feb. 1, 1946."

It was over this additional $2.00 raise that the strike was called, commencing Monday morning of last week.

During the period of the strike telephone service here, as elsewhere in the state, was limited to emergency calls.

"Staff Sergeant Harold A. Atwood, son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles A. Atwood of R. F. D. No. 2, Antioch, will be returning to the United States for a discharge from the army under the adjusted service rating plan. Just when he will arrive in the States is, of course, wholly dependent upon the availability of transportation.

Proceeds of "Seal" Sales Help in War Against Tuberculosis

"On November 19 the Lake County Tuberculosis association mailed 39,553 Christmas Seal letters to residents of Lake county," says Miss Orpha L. White, chairman. There is a definite message in each letter and the association petitions a careful reading before the receiver decides the amount of his contribution.

"The Lake County Tuberculosis association has an organized fight against tuberculosis in Lake county and contributions from the annual Christmas Seal sale finance its work throughout the year and determine the extent of any expansion in its program.

"Besides its usual work of clinics, tuberculin testing surveys in schools, nursing service and educational programs, the association this year has made the initial payment on a Mobile X-ray unit. This unit will enable the association to carry "on the spot" chest x-ray examinations to factories, schools, stores and large corporations.

"The association plans to make final payment for this unit from this year's Christmas Seal sale funds and have remaining a sufficient fund for maintenance of the unit and carrying on its usual work which must not be neglected.

"It is urged you make your contributions early. The sooner contributions are made, the sooner the association can make out its budget for another year, and know just how far it can arrange surveys with this new Mobile X-ray unit. When you give to the association you are helping to prevent the spread of tuberculosis in your community."

The "Four Freedoms"—for Whom?

We recently had the pleasure of conversing with a former member of the Eighth Air force who had been shot down over Germany, imprisoned, and finally released after being marched several hundred miles about that country.

This young gentleman reviewed with equanimity his training in the infantry, the armored force and the air force; his service overseas in Africa and England; and recounted, with philosophy and humor, his experiences during the months when he was listed, first as "missing" and later as a prisoner.

He discussed with indignation, however, the Indonesian situation.

"It seems to me," he said, "that the people in Indo-China and Java are as much entitled to consideration as those in any other occupied country."

"We were supposed to have been fighting for freedom, and it gives me a strange feeling to read of American planes or American weapons being used to put down revolts of natives in some of those countries."

This was just a passing observation, and we don't suppose that the young man who made the remarks expected them to have any world-shaking significance.

We believe that they are significant in more respects than one, however. Men—and women—from all walks of life, and of all types of character, are coming back from the service to civilian life. Many of them bring back with them an amazing store of experience and observation which cannot fail, in the aggregate, to have an impact on post-war matters. Life in the coming years will undoubtedly be the richer and the better for them.

"For Services Rendered"

While the National Association of Manufacturers is fulminating about strikes, and the unions are griping about wages, and the rest of just us plain people are merely griping, it occurs to us that one highly relevant fact seems to have been overlooked by all sides, in the rush.

That fact is that, although history may repeat, time nevertheless doesn't exactly "turn backward in its flight," despite a famous poet's plea.

While the unions are vowing that "never again shall wages and employment drop back to the 1932 conditions," and while manufacturers have been sighing, "labor seems to have gotten out of hand ever since 1942," and both are vowing, "We'll fix 'em!" all parties concerned seem to have forgotten that never again will we relive those years and their problems.

It is 1952 that we must face and plan for now—not 1932 nor yet even 1942.

Also, there are some important factors that nobody seems to be mentioning. One of these is the fact that all wages, profits and interest represent a payment for services rendered. Another is that the next few years can be expected to reveal some amazing new "frontiers" in industry, science and the art of living.

We live by the light of past experience, but we do that living in the present—and it is the future, not the past, for which our planning must be made.

That Housing Shortage is Real

One thing that Antioch has in common with New York and a lot of other places around and about the country right now is a housing shortage.

So far as many a veteran—and many a civilian—is concerned these days, this is considerably more of a live issue right now, than, say, the Russian situation, the atrocity trials in Germany, and when nylons will be back in the market.

Ed F. Vos, president of the Antioch Lumber and Coal company, commenting on the situation early this week, said that in his opinion it will take a while before much can be done, from a construction standpoint, to relieve the situation with new housing.

"I recently had occasion to inspect a $15,000 home that is being built in Chicago," he observed, "and there isn't a foot of new lumber being put into that building. The shortage at the present time applies not only to lumber, but to tile and other materials used in construction."

A news article from the east states that "More than 20,000 bitter veterans are walking the streets of New York or sitting 50 deep at agencies and housing centers, waiting for apartments. . . . By June there will be 100,000 homeless veterans."

Heavy demands for wartime construction projects, both from the government and private industry, have used up reserves and funneled off new production in the way of building materials. There is by no means a plentiful supply of labor available to cope with the problem of bringing up to normal the stock of material in this country's 28,000 lumber yards.

Apparently, then, whatever is done to relieve the situation immediately—here and in other communities—must be done through better use of existing materials and facilities.

In the Antioch area, summer cottages suited for year-around use, or adaptable for winter occupancy, have been rented out for the winter months. However, this is merely a postponement of the problem, for their occupants will still have to face the idea of securing permanent quarters next summer. By then, it is hoped by these home seekers, the situation will be considerably easier.

In some cases, homes located at various lakes have been bought and moved to new sites in the village. A few new homes have been built.

In some of the lake shore cities, vacant warehouses and other large buildings have been converted into apartments. Barracks have been constructed to house war workers in the vicinity of the plants where they were employed. Vacant stores, taverns and even filling stations have been pressed into service as dwellings. Huge, rambling old family residences have been converted into apartments and rooming houses.

All of these devices have helped to relieve the housing situation during the war years. Now, with many veterans returning to their wives and children, and other veterans coming home and marrying, there will have to be even more complete utilization of existing space, it appears, before that "new post-war home" of magazine predictions becomes a reality.

Work for the rehabilitation of veterans, one of the American Legion auxiliary's basic purposes, is occupying an important place in plans of the Antioch Unit at the present time. The unit's "five point" rehabilitation program for the coming year has now been completed, it was announced at a meeting Friday evening in the Legion hall.

Tomorrow afternoon, Mrs. Maud Johnson, president, and Mrs. Eva Burnette, rehabilitation chairman, will attend a Tenth district rehabilitation meeting in Lake Bluff.

In token of respect to Mrs. Mary L. Nedbal, who passed away Nov. 13, the unit's charter was draped. Mrs. Nedbal was a past president of a Chicago unit and transferred her membership to the Antioch unit when she became a resident here.

A contribution of $25.00 for the Christmas gift fund for veterans at Downey was voted Friday evening, and the announcement was made that a group from the Antioch auxiliary will go to Downey in December to help wrap gifts.

A contribution of $5.00 was made to the Dwight Gift shop. Members of the Antioch auxiliary have given 204 Christmas cards to be used by the veterans at Downey.

Purchase of a $1,000 maturity value bond by the auxiliary was approved at the meeting.

The unit donated $5.00 to the Lake County Tuberculosis association.

During a social period afterward, five hundred and pinocle were enjoyed and a luncheon was served. Awards for high scores went to Meses. Sadie Keeney, Pearl Anderson, Rose Kennedy, Myrtle Klass and Agnes Glenn.

Initiation will take place at the next meeting, on Friday evening, Dec. 14.

CHRISTIAN SCIENCE CHURCHES

The subject of the Lesson-Sermon in all Churches of Christ, Scientist, on Thursday, November 22, was:

THANKSGIVING

The Golden Text was:

"Rejoice evermore: 'Pray without ceasing. In everything give thanks' (1 Thess. 5: 16-18).

Among the citations which comprised the Lesson-Sermon was the following from the Bible:

"It is a good thing to give thanks unto the Lord, and to sing praises unto thy name, O most High... For thou, Lord, hast made me glad through thy work: I will triumph in the works of thy hands... Seek ye the Lord while he may be found, call ye upon him while he is near... For ye shall go out with joy, and be led forth with peace: the mountains and the hills shall break forth before you into singing, and all the trees of the field shall clap their hands" (Ps. 92: 1, 4; Isa. 55: 6, 12).

The Lesson-Sermon also included the following passages from the Christian Science textbook, "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures," by Mary Baker Eddy: "Love is impartial and universal in its adaptation and bestowals. It is the open fount which cries, 'Ho, every one that thirsteth, come ye to the waters.'... Are we really grateful for the good already received? Then we shall avail ourselves of the blessings we have, and thus be fitted to receive more. Gratitude is much more than a verbal expression of thanks. Action expresses more gratitude than speech... Practice not profession, understanding not belief, gain the ear and right hand of omnipotence and they assuredly call down infinite blessings" (pp. 18, 8, 16).

THE TELEPHONE STRIKE IS OVER

All 8,700 members of the Illinois Telephone Traffic Union have returned to their switchboards, again to give you the pleasant telephone service to which you are entitled. Also back are the individuals of other telephone unions who felt they should not cross picket lines.

Long Distance service is normal; local service in 105 Illinois cities once more features the voice with the smile.

This is good news to you—and to us.

We thank you for patience and cooperation during service difficulties. We also thank the thousands of telephone workers who put public service above the disputed issues. Many of these were supervisory people who put in long and arduous hours. Some were former operators who volunteered; others were retired employees now on telephone pensions who came back to help out. We are especially grateful to all of them for the emergency services given.

RETURNING WORKERS WELCOMED

To the returning worker we say—Welcome back. We are glad to have you again at your posts. There will be no prejudice, no ill feeling on our part.

We hope that the Union members will adopt this same broad view so that there will be no unpleasantness directed at those telephone workers who stayed at their posts to provide emergency service to the public.

And now—"Number, please?"

Polishing Wood

To polish wood, use equal parts of turpentine and boiled linseed oil. Apply thinly with a polishing cloth using even strokes. Rub against the grain of the wood, then in straight lines with the grain. Wood should have time to absorb oil. Then rub it thoroughly. Repeat the process until a satiny gloss results. Good results depend largely on the rubbing.
